Consent to Release Information

Student's Name: _____ UWID: _____

It is Westfield State University's policy to keep student records confidential. Banacos Academic Center staff will not disclose any information other than "directory information" about students to people outside the University unless the student has given written consent or in certain other cases permitted by law and University policy. The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) regulations, as revised in 1996, sets out requirements designed to afford students' rights with respect to their educational records. In addition, it puts limits on what information the University can disclose without having received prior consent.

You may choose to grant Banacos Academic Center staff the right to disclose educational records to certain individuals in accordance with FERPA and University Policy by completing and signing this consent form. You have the right to revoke this consent at any time in writing.

I consent that the following information be released to the people listed below:

☐ All records	☐ Confirmation of registration status with Banacos
