FALL ORIENTATION

ORIENTATION LEADER:

TEAM NUMBER:

SCHEDULE GROUP: A

A Letter from the Coordinator

Welcome Home!

My name is Matt Dellea, and I am the Director of Student Activities, Involvement, and Leadership (SAIL). On behalf of the New Student Orientation Team, it is my privilege to welcome you to the Westfield State community.

Whether you have decided to commute or live on campus, are coming to Westfield State with a few college credits in place, have decided on your major or are taking time to explore your options, the New Student Orientation Program is designed to help you learn about your new home away from home.

Our program is designed to be your official welcome to life at Westfield State University. By attending all sessions in our program schedule, you will learn everything that you need to be a successful student here. Sessions are designed to assist you in understanding policies and procedures, discover ways to be an involved student, and create meaningful connections with your peers.

You will be led through the program by an energetic Orientation Leader, who will be with you every step of the way as you attend sessions to learn about important campus resources and get a feel for the Westfield State University community. This returning student leader will be your best point-of-contact throughout your first year, and it is our hope that you attend their events throughout the fall semester.

This packet includes your schedule for the next several days. You will also find our Welcome Week program schedule at the end of this packet. Please use this to stay on track or feel free to find all these events on Westfield Involve, so you can have it electronically.

We are excited to have you at Westfield State and encourage you to reach out if you have any questions.
